Preamble

- (1) The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) represents a fundamental change to how supports for people with disability are funded and delivered across Australia. The NDIS was designed to produce major benefits for people with disability, their families and the broader community.
- (2) The NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission is responsible for a range of functions under the National Quality and Safeguarding Framework aimed at protecting and preventing harm to people with disability in the NDIS market. The Commission will build the capability of NDIS participants and providers to uphold the rights of people with disability and realise the benefits of the NDIS. The rules are intended to support participants to be informed purchasers and consumers of NDIS supports and services and to live free from abuse, neglect, violence and exploitation.
- (3) People have a right to expect that their personal information is protected. The National Disability Insurance Act 2013 and the National Disability Insurance Scheme (Protection and Disclosure of Information—Commissioner) Rules 2018 set out the information handling requirements for the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission, including the use and disclosure of NDIS information. The Commissioner can only make disclosures of protected information in accordance with these rules.
- (4) The States and Territories will remain responsible for quality and safeguards arrangements for mainstream and other services to people with disability such as health, education and child protection. It is necessary for the Commissioner to work closely with other regulatory bodies in protecting and preventing harm to people with disability.
- (5) These rules provide a balance between protecting the privacy of people and enabling information to be exchanged with relevant bodies to support appropriate regulatory responses, especially where vulnerable people may be at risk of harm.

then subsections (3) and (4) apply in relation to the person.

Part 2—State and Territory laws that may affect a requirement by the Commissioner to give information or evidence or produce documents

6 Simplified outline of this Part

This Part is made for the purposes of section 58 of the Act. It prescribes State and Territory laws that may mean that a person is not required to give information or evidence or produce a document, despite a requirement from the Commissioner.

The Commissioner has various powers under the Act to require a person to give information or evidence, or produce a document to the Commissioner or a Commission officer.

Generally, a requirement under the Act to give information, produce a document or give evidence to the Commissioner or a Commission officer is not affected by State or Territory laws.

However, a person is not required to give the information or evidence or produce the document if:

- (a) a State or Territory law would otherwise prevent a person from giving information or evidence, or producing a document to the Commissioner or a Commission officer; and
- (b) that law is prescribed by the Rules.

7 Prescribed State and Territory laws

For the purposes of paragraph 58(2)(b) of the Act, the laws listed in Schedule 1 are prescribed in relation to any requirement to give information or evidence or produce a document to the Commissioner or a Commission officer under the Act.

Part 3—The Commissioner's information disclosure powers

8 Simplified outline of this Part

This Part is for the purposes of section 67F of the Act. It prescribes rules and guidance in relation to the Commissioner's disclosure powers in paragraph 67E(1)(a) and subparagraphs 67E(1)(b)(i), (iii) and (iv) of the Act. Subsection 67E(2) of the Act provides that in disclosing information for the purposes of those provisions, the Commissioner must act in accordance with rules made for the purposes of section 67F of the Act.

The Act restricts the circumstances in which protected Commission information can be recorded, disclosed or used.

However, the Commissioner may disclose information acquired by a person in the performance of the person's functions or duties or in the exercise of the person's powers under the Act (referred to in these rules as 'NDIS information').

Division 1 sets out rules the Commissioner must follow when disclosing NDIS information. Division 1 applies to all disclosures under section 67E, other than to a person who has the express or implied consent of the person to whom the information relates to collect it.

Division 2 sets out the matters that the Commissioner must consider in deciding whether it is in the public interest to disclose NDIS information. This Division provides a list of matters, including specific examples, that the Commissioner must consider in exercising discretion to disclose NDIS information in the public interest.

Division 3 provides that the Commissioner may disclose information to Commonwealth, State or Territory Departments and authorities, either following a request for information or of the Commissioner's own initiative.

- (a) protected Commission information; or
- (b) personal information.

Division 1—Rules about the Commissioner disclosing information

- (7) This section does not apply to a proposed disclosure if the Commissioner is satisfied that:
 - (a) the disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious threat to an individual's life, health or safety; or

12 Notice to recipient of NDIS information

If the Commissioner discloses NDIS information under section 67E of the Act (other than subparagraph 67E(1)(b)(ii)), the Commissioner must, at the time of the disclosure, give the person a notice which includes:

- (3) A description or summary for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a) may take the form of a list of document or record numbers which would enable the information disclosed to be located in the Commission's record management system.
- (4) A record made for the purposes of subsection (1) must be kept:
 - (a) if the National Archives of Australia has given permission, or approved a practice or procedure in relation to the record under paragraph 24(2)(b) of the Archives Act 1983—in accordance with that permission or approval, as amended from time to time; or
 - (b) if no such permission or approval has been given—for 7 years.

- (1) In deciding whether the Commissioner is satisfied on reasonable grounds that it is in the public interest to disclose NDIS information, the Commissioner must consider:
